Career Point is sanctioned a skill development project of Rs 8.93 Crores

5 November 2016, Kota: Career Point Ltd (NSE: CAREERP; BSE: 533260), nation's leading education and training provider, has been sanctioned a project of skilling for 1500 rural poor youth in the state of Rajasthan under DDU-GKY (Deen Dayal Upadhyay – Gramin Kaushal Yojna) under Ministry of Rural Development (MoRD). In pursuance to the approval, Rajasthan Skill and Livelihoods Development Corporation (RSLDC) as nodal agency for the DDU-GKY in Rajasthan has issued a sanction order for total project cost of Rs 8,93,10,060 to Career Point Limited as PIA (Project Implementation Agency).

Commenting on the development Mr. Pramod Maheshwari, Chairman and Managing Director at Career Point Limited, said, "In addition to Career Point's existing projects with NSDC, RSLDC and other agencies; a new sanction order under DDU-GKY scheme by MoRD showcase company's credentials and exceptional performance in Skill Development division. The current market for vocational education is very favorable and supportive by Central government and state governments, as well. Going forward, we are quite hopeful for a significant contribution from this division in the company's growth and addressing the issue of skill gap as key social need."

Adding further details of the project, Mr. Mahesh Bhangriya, Vice President – Corporate Strategy at Career Point informed that, "Duration of the project execution is 36 months and the company has been given 5 district locations in Rajasthan i.e. Jaipur, Kota, Jhalawar, Buda and Baran for its implementation. The training courses are from 4 sectors including IT-ITES, BFSI, Apparel and Tourism & Hospitality. It is a residential skill development training program with duration of each course is in the range of 624 to 720 hours for approximately 100 days."
